SEMI VISION 2020

To bring recognition to all academic training programs that are creating emergency physicians for India, and integrate those under one single standardized board certification.

To spread awareness about emergency medicine speciality among healthcare & non-healthcare professionals, and general public.

To maintain unity among the different groups of emergency physicians in India, and to channel their strengths towards EM development.

2016

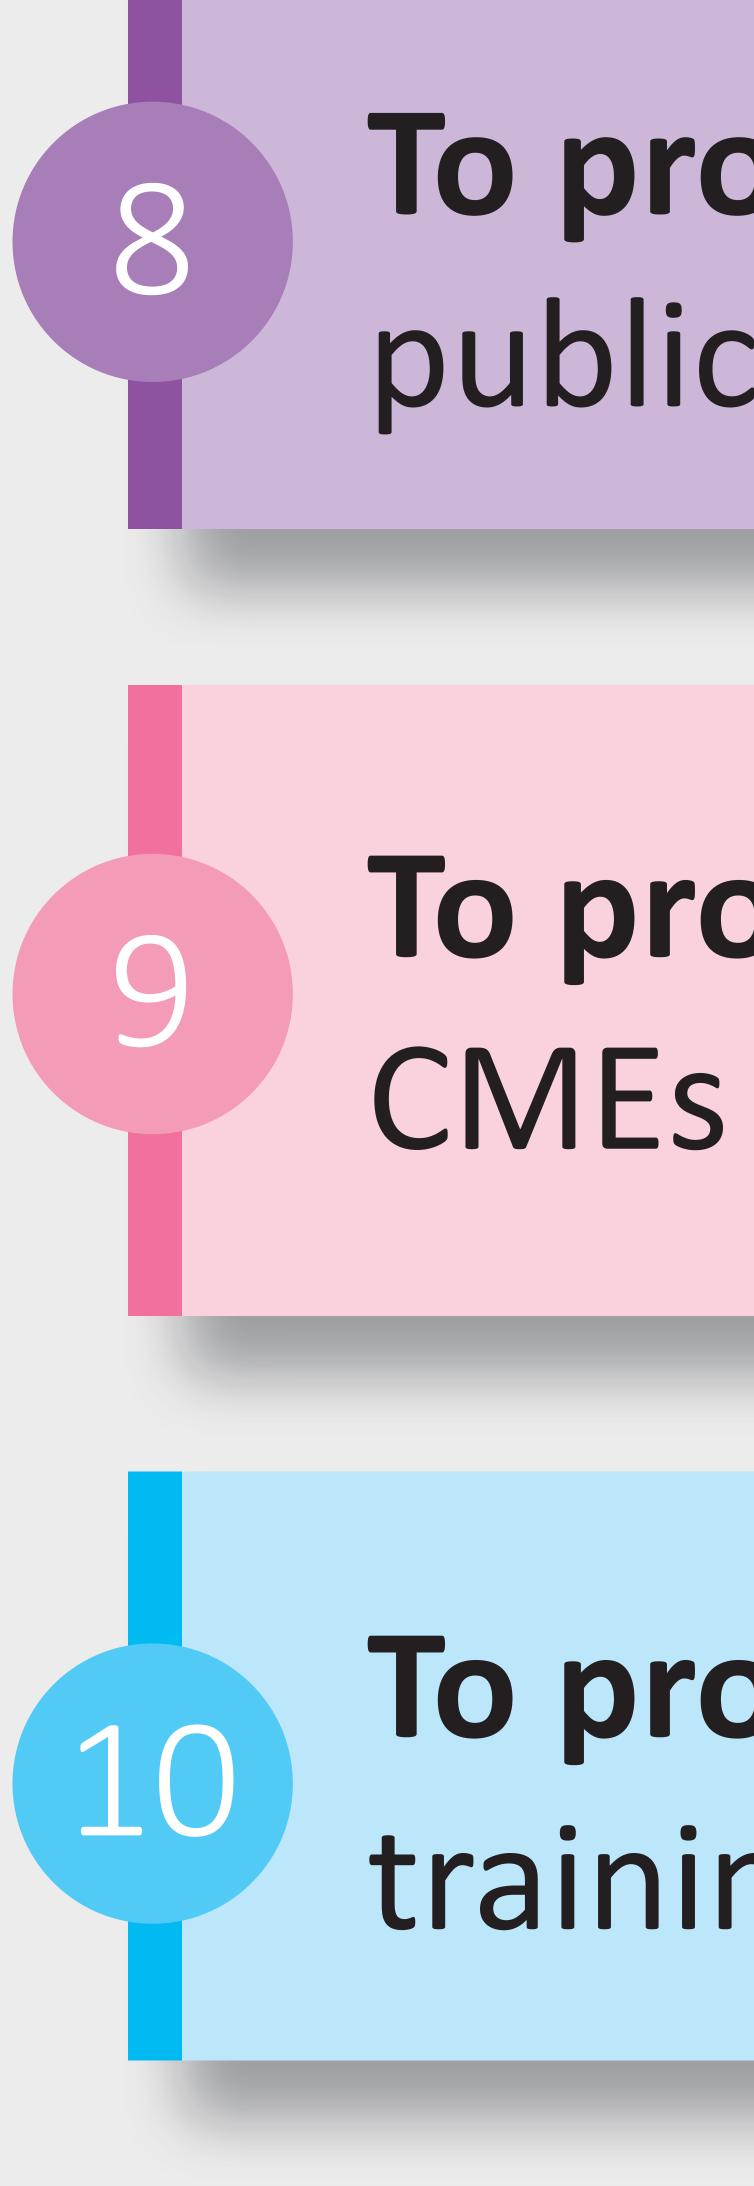

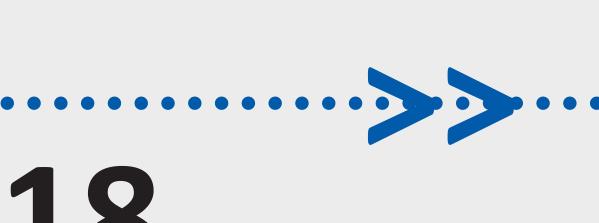

Io improve emergency medical care in non-urban and rural communities.

emergency medicine training within MBBS and postgraduate curriculum.

To promote gender equality in EM training, employment & governance;

Society for Emergency Medicine India Full member of International Federation of Emergency Medicine (IFEM)

To promote research in EM and publication of research

To promote more conferences & CMEs in emergency medicine

To provide free first-aid & BLS training to the public

To facilitate EM faculty development and leadership activities

To develop pre-hospital emergency care and pediatric EM